If I had to name my Projects of Art, one would be called War & Peace because the outside is kinda crazy blasted out color's, but the inside is peaceful. The other would be Love & Peace, because it's a peaceful box on the outside & on the inside.

“My old man is a bad man but I can’t deny the way he holds my hand and he grabs me, he has my heart. He doesn’t mind I have a flat broke down life, in fact he says it what he might like about me, admires me, the way I roll like a rolling stone!”

Story

I will always have violence throughout my life. Some things have left me with a new look on life, but others have made me into the strong female I am today. I wouldn't take away or change any thing in my life. That's how my two art pieces are combined, because that violent event in my life made me look at life, and people in a different way!

I've always wanted a girl, and the day I found out I had the chance of having one! I lost her. I'll never forget the day I found out I had a chance of having a baby girl!
